

TORI SHAUNA

Marriage / Music / Ministry

TORI & SHAUNA

THE MARRIAGE

For Tori and Shauna Nelson, music isn't just a calling—it's an extension of their ministry and marriage. Their story is one authored by God, woven through life's highs and valleys, and filled with unwavering purpose. Guided by Isaiah 55:8-9, they believe that when there's Kingdom work to be done, God orchestrates every step—and their union is living proof.

THE MUSIC

From humble beginnings in Cleveland, Ohio, to their current path as one of Christian music's most soulful and refreshing voices, Tori and Shauna have remained faithful to the mission: to worship boldly and draw others into the presence of God through song. Individually gifted, but spiritually stronger together, their music is rich with Scripture, shaped by testimony, and anointed for healing.

Their Sound & Message With a style that blends rich harmonies, soft tenderness, and the depth of soul-stirring gospel, their vocals reflect lives touched by grace and anchored in humility. Their music spans from soaring declarations of praise to quiet moments of reverence—each track a vessel of hope, comfort, and restoration.

New Release: Share Your Love Vol. 2 Following their breakout EP in 2020, their highly anticipated album Share Your Love Vol. 2 launched in 2023, featuring powerful singles like:

- "The Lord is Close" – rooted in Psalm 34:18, a balm for the brokenhearted
- "When I Think About You" – a joyful, high-energy anthem of gratitude Produced by Grammy Award-winner Jonathan Crone and legendary artist-producer Myron Davis, this album deepens their sound and sharpens their message: that God's love is ever-present and undeniably powerful.

THE MINISTRY

Ministry in Motion Their journey has taken them from church choirs and campus ministries to the stages of Nashville, where God led them to collaborate with producers and worship artists who share their vision. In 2018, their debut single “The Love of Jesus” marked the beginning of something greater, co-written with Crone and American Idol finalist Josh Wright. That release ignited a series of worship-driven songs that continue to inspire and uplift.

Hearts Set on Worship Ordained in ministry and seasoned in worship leadership, Tori brings theological depth and a preacher’s heart to every lyric. Shauna, having sung since the age of three, channels her roots as a pastor’s daughter into every passionate performance. Together, they’ve chosen to be vessels—empty of ego and full of the Holy Spirit—to pour out songs that lead people to Jesus.

More Than Music Beyond the melodies, Tori & Shauna’s lives testify to the sustaining grace of God. They are passionate about helping others encounter Christ—not just through music, but through the Word, through worship, and through witnessing. Whether in a church pew or through speakers across the world, their message rings clear: There is no greater love than the love of Jesus.

